講義題目 授業の目標概要		English Through Advertising and Advertising's Role in Society M3 The goal of this course is to assist students in understanding the relationships between advertising and the modern consumer-oriented society. By the end of this class, students will be able to present and discuss issues in a researched and structured manner. We will study advertising campaigns from TV, the Internet and print media, discover the sales messages contained in these campaigns and how they reach their consumer targets. We will also research the way similar products are marketed differently for different cultures or countries. In addition, we will evaluate the way different societies use PSAs (Public Service Announcements / 公共広告) to raise awareness of important issues such as Domestic Violence (DV), HIV/AIDS, substance abuse, etc. Topics covered will include: - TV Commercial Strategies - Print Advertisements Design Analysis - PSAs, CSR and cause marketing - Advertising controversies (political advertising, advertising tobacco and alcohol, advertising to children, gender and racial stereotypes in advertising.)
